

KNOW YOUR RIGHTS

If approached by ICE agents or police:

- You do NOT have to reveal your immigration status and have the right to remain silent.

If ICE agents come to your home:

- You do NOT have to open the door.
- Ask to see a search warrant through the window or for it to be slipped under the door. It must be signed by a judge and have your name on it.
- A deportation warrant is NOT the same as a search warrant and does NOT authorize ICE agents to enter your home without permission.
- You have the right to refuse ICE permission to enter your home if agents do not present a valid warrant.
- If ICE agents enter without a valid warrant, ask for the agents' names and badge numbers.

If you are arrested or detained:

- You have the right to speak to a lawyer immediately.
- You or your family can call your congress member to help connect you to legal services.
- You have the right to remain silent and refuse to sign any documents without advice from an attorney.

Make a family preparedness plan:

- Collect and secure important documents, identify guardians, establish power of attorney, and update your child's school emergency contact list.
